This year's Professional Development Day took place in September at Seats2Meet ... Coffee and chat (no cookie)

Heads down for an in-depth discussion of what's pushing us onwards or holding us back. Time to discuss some personal challenges – all in the strictest confidence, of course

Having bagged the most comfortable seating area, our little group works its way through the list of awkward questions

A good opportunity to recount an 'Oops!' moment. Stephen Johnston enjoying a funny anecdote

Siji and Cathy reminiscing about the good old days in bad old London adland

Sharing a joke

Cheers to the end of a fun and informative day ◀
